

Office of International Academic Affairs

Call for Applications

Inviting Faculty Members from Collège de France to Teach at TAU and Vice Versa, During the 2020-21 Academic Year

Dear All,

Tel Aviv University has signed a collaboration agreement with Collège de France

This collaboration encourages faculty members from TAU to:

Invite faculty members from Collège de France to teach at TAU and/ or

Apply for temporary teaching positions at Collège de France.

Teaching period: maximum 4 weeks (minimum 1 lecture per each week of stay; stay can be inferior to a full week if the guest is not available for a longer period).

Teaching will be made in accordance with Tel Aviv University regulations.

Teaching during the semester at Collège de France will be in accordance with Tel Aviv University regulations.

Applications will be reviewed by a representative appointed by Tel Aviv University Rector. Final decision will be made by the Assembly of Collège de France.

The host institute will provide a financial support for up to 3 professors from the partner institution as follows: reasonable living expenses for housing, meals and local transportation.

Flight ticket will be paid by the faculty member who submitted the application.

Application Deadline: January 31 2020.

Application for inviting Faculty members from Collège de France to teach at TAU

Financial support will be provided in accordance with the Tel Aviv University regulations as indicated in Tel Aviv University Academic Visitor Directive.

The host department will be required to process the visit of each incoming faculty member as indicated in Tel Aviv University Academic Directive.

Application form

Application for TAU faculty members who would like to teach at Collège de France

Invitation letter from a faculty member at Collège de France is required in order to apply, as all invitations to lecture at the Collège de France are made at the sole personal initiative of its professors.

Application form